Beatrice Welles

Around the World with Orson Welles

October 19, 1995

Beatrice Welles will share memories of life with her father, Orson Welles, the Woodstock Opera House's most illustrious personality. Ms. Welles looks back on her childhood and her life which were filled with love and a sense of adventure created by her famous father, the international theater genius. As a student of Woodstock's Todd School for Boys, Welles started his Shakespearean productions on the Opera House stage.

Stewart Figa

A Vignette of Yiddish
Music and Theater

November 16, 1995

Stage performer, singer and cantor, Stewart Figa has appeared in Yiddish Theatre productions on and off Broadway. A graduate of Northwestern University's Theater Department and a Chicago native, he has performed at the Goodman Theater, Wisdom Bridge Theater, Mariott's Lincolnshire Theater and the Woodstock Opera House in the outstanding production of Strider. The multifaceted Mr. Figa and his "Klezmer friends" will present and interpret this Eastern-European musical tradition. L'chaim!

Brock Jobe

Winterthur: Antiques

January 18, 1996

Learn from an expert! Knowledge is the key to understanding and appreciating antiques. Brock Jobe is the Deputy Director for Collections and Interpretation at Winterthur Museum, the great country house of the du Pont family. The name Winterthur represents to the art world the unparalleled richness of the most important American decorative arts collection in the world.

Lucy Miele

The General's Lady

February 15, 1996

Wit, gossip, history and fashion - The General's Lady is a one-woman dramatic interpretation of Julia Dent Grant, wife of Ulysses S. Grant, Illinois Civil War General and President of the United States. It is a wry, moving, visually spectacular program of life and love in an opulent era. Ms. Miele is well known as an author, actress, columnist and humorist.

Ralph McNerny

Literature and the Mystery
Novel

March 21, 1996

Famous whodunit author, Ralph McNerny is best known for the Father Dowling mystery series, which was adapted for television and starred Tom Bosley, a Woodstock Opera House alum. Dr. McNerny is a Professor of Medieval Studies at Notre Dame University and author of many novels and philosophical treatises. His most recent novels are Mom & Dead (1994) and the latest Father Dowling mystery, A Cardinal Offense (1995).

Charlie Trotter

Chef Extraordinaire

April 18, 1996

We have had a French chef, an Italian chef and a Chinese chef. How about a real American top-of-the-line food genius like Charlie Trotter. Charlie Trotter's restaurant in Chicago is considered by many connoisseurs to be one of the finest, if not the finest restaurant in America today. "This is a restaurant like Cape Canaveral is an airport." Chicago Magazine.

All programs begin at 10:00 a.m.

Coffee and conversation offered at 9:00 a.m. Please join us.
