Wally Phillips

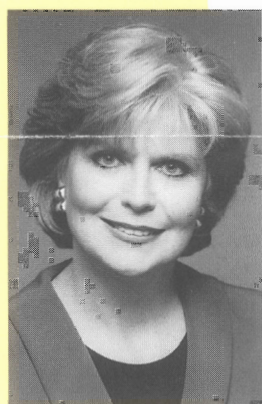

"MR. CHICAGO RADIO"

October 15, 1998

Wally Phillips and Chicago Radio are synonymous. During his forty plus years in radio, he literally redefined the medium. He was the first to take a phone call on the air, and the first to work without a script. Wally created the "morning drive" as we know it. In 1997 Wally was inducted into the National Association of Broadcasters' Broadcasting Hall of Fame. We grew up with Wally Phillips and so did Radio.

Carol Marin

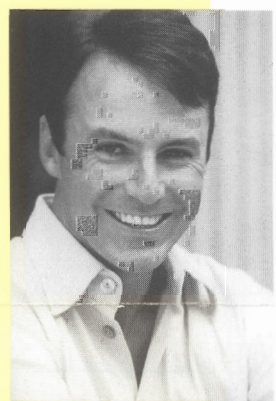

TELEVISION JOURNALIST

January 21, 1999

Reporter and journalist Carol Marin made the news herself in May 1997, when she left her position of co-anchor at WMAQ-TV after being with the station for 19 years. It marked her firm stance for journalistic integrity. Ms Marin transferred to News 2 Chicago (Channel 2) as a reporter in July 1997. She is a contributing reporter to CBS News "Public Eye With Bryant Gumbel," and News Sports Radio. Ms Marin has won 14 Chicago Emmy Awards, a National Emmy Award, the Ethics in Journalism Award, the Courage in Journalism Award, and the Peabody Award for lifetime achievement.

Colin Cowie

PARTY PLANNER FOR THE STARS

March 18, 1999

Colin Cowie is today's most sought after party and wedding planner. His books, Effortless Elegance and Weddings, and his special brand of tireless commitment and over-the-top style have helped him gain fame for his luxurious designs. His slide show and books offer interesting menus and entertaining tips down to the last detail. Colin is a favorite guest on "The Oprah Winfrey Show." You will learn what makes or breaks a celebration.

Angelina Reaux

ACTRESS AND SINGER

November 19, 1998

"COME TO THE CABARET, OLD CHUM!" No, not the Tony award-winning musical. We mean the real thing — KABARETT. That's the German word for the satirical entertainments that typified the "anything goes" climate of Weimar Berlin in the 1920's and 1930's. Trained as an actress and classical singer, Ms Reaux has sung programs by Kurt Weill, performed with Leonard Bernstein, Kurt Mazur, the New York Philharmonic, Boston Pops, Santa Fe Opera, and at Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall and Ravinia. She will introduce us to the world of Kabarett through songs and stories.

Vera B. Williams

AWARD WINNING CHILDREN'S AUTHOR AND ILLUSTRATOR

February 18, 1999

Vera B. Williams has written and illustrated over ten books for children, including Caldecott Honor books Chair for My Mother and More, More, More, Said the Baby. In her own words, she has "worked for peace; done graphic art, school-teaching, and children-raising (two daughters and a son); run a bakery; and been a cook in schools and restaurants." Ms Williams will share stories of her life as a writer and show slides describing her creative process as an illustrator.

Audrey Sutherland

AUTHOR AND ADVENTURER

April 15, 1999

Audrey Sutherland's formula for living the adventurous life is, "Go simple, go solo, go now!" The Hawaiian resident has logged over 8,000 solo miles in Alaska's Inside Passage in her inflatable sea kayak, plus many more miles in the South Pacific and Europe. Author of Paddling My Own Canoe and Paddling Hawaii, Ms Sutherland shows how to camp in style with gourmet meals while "living off the land." Ms Sutherland's kayak will share the Opera House stage with her while she demonstrates precise packing for her three month solo adventures.

All programs begin at 10:00 a.m.

Coffee and Conversation offered at 9:00 a.m.

The Woodstock Fine Arts Association is an organization of volunteers in support of the arts and the Opera House. We raise funds for scholarships and Opera House restoration. Our programming efforts include a three concert classical music series and a school children's performance series which introduces students throughout the area to the appreciation of the performing arts.
