

The Fifth Creative Living Series

Stuart Brent, outstanding Chicago book reviewer, author, teacher, critic, TV personality and lecturer, reviews a significant, current-interest novel for his Opera House appearance. Mr. Brent has taught philosophy at the University of Chicago, and moderated the television show, "Books and Brent," for many years. He is the author of The Seven Stairs and the Mr. Toast books for children, and also has a popular Michigan Avenue Book and Record Shop.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17 — 10 a.m.

Katherine de Jersey, professional astrologer, TV and radio personality and coast-to-coast lecturer, presents "Follow Your Lucky Stars." Miss de Jersey explains the "true" horoscope and describes her philosophy on astrology. The program features a discussion of the twelve zodiac signs. And with audience participation, she points out physical features and behavior patterns likely to be found under each sign.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21 — 10 a.m.

Maggie Daly, popular newspaper columnist, fashion lecturer and Chicago TV personality, brings alive the colorful fast-paced social and entertainment world with her witty, frank discussion, "Celebrities Are My Business." Best known for her Chicago's American column, "Daly Diary," Miss Daly talks about her involvement with the "Beautiful People," giving cheers, jeers and asides.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 16 — 10 a.m.

PRESENTED BY THE WOMEN'S GUILD OF THE WOODSTOCK FINE ARTS ASSOCIATION, AT THE HISTORIC OPERA HOUSE, WOODSTOCK, ILLINOIS . . . A SERIES OF SIX PROGRAMS THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17 THROUGH THURSDAY, APRIL 17

Frank R. Stolf, concert flutist who has performed at Chicago's Orchestra Hall and the Civic Opera House, presents a selection of classical and contemporary works, playing in trio with a pianist and violinist. Selections range from interludes by contemporary French composer Jacques Ibert to Mozart sonatas for flute and violin, written when the composer was an eight-year-old child prodigy.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20 — 10 a.m.

"Shadow and Splendor" — Austria and its Empress Elizabeth," another color camera achievement by Howdee Meyers and Lucia Perrigo who return to the Opera House for the only series evening performance. Set to the waltz time of Strauss, this travel-theater film relates the story of Elizabeth against the background of Austria. You'll visit the Hofburg Winter Palace, see the famed Lipizzaner horses and scenes of vintage Vienna, to mention just a few.

THURSDAY, MARCH 20 — 8 p.m.

Alfred J. Jakstas, conservator at The Art Institute of Chicago, discusses the fascinating science of art conservation, relating his personal experiences in restoring rare museum masterpieces from the ravages of time and man — among them Tiepolo's "Madonna of the Rosary" and Martinelli's "Judith." Mr. Jakstas has been a museum conservator for some 25 years and is a fellow of the International Institute for the Conservation of Museum Objects.

THURSDAY, APRIL 17 — 10 a.m.

Coffee will be served at 9:30 a.m. in the Green Room before each morning program.

Join us for the Fifth Creative Living Series

A PROGRAM SERIES OF LITERATURE, ASTROLOGY, THEATER, MUSIC, TRAVEL AND ART. PRESENTED BY THE WOMEN'S GUILD OF THE WOODSTOCK FINE ARTS ASSOCIATION. AT THE HISTORIC OPERA HOUSE ON THE SQUARE.

The Creative Living Series has been planned to give women in the area an opportunity to hear and talk with well-known personalities in a variety of fields. The six-program series will run from October 17 through April 17.

What's your zodiac sign? A famous astrologer will tell what's in the stars for you. Then come journey by film through beautiful Austria. And hear a popular newspaper columnist tell the inside story on the glamorous social and entertainment world. And much more!

 The angel symbol used by the Guild denotes the theater angel, the name traditionally applied to those who support fine arts productions. Become a theater angel this year and support the Creative Living Series. You'll find the programs a worthwhile, creative addition to your schedule for '68-69.

SINGLE TICKET: $2.00, purchased at box office

SERIES TICKET: $10.00, see clipping at right

The Women's Guild

Since its formation in 1964, the Guild has aspired to restore and maintain the historic, turn-of-the-century Opera House by programming stimulating events that interest area residents. Programs under their sponsorship include the Creative Living Series, the major spring benefit events, and the Hospitality Day Art Fair. And this year they have introduced a series of ballet classes for children and adults. Proceeds from their activities are used to operate the Fine Arts Association Summer Youth Program, and also aid in Opera House restoration. A modest $2.00 annual membership fee, payable in February, provides funds for the programs.

The Women's Guild is a hard-core working organization of the Fine Arts Association. Annual Association dues provide for salaries, general maintenance costs and year-round cultural, educational and entertainment events for people of all ages.

Please clip out and return to: Woodstock Fine Arts Association, Inc. Box 225, Woodstock, Ill.

PLEASE SEND ME A SUBSCRIPTION TO THE FIFTH "CREATIVE LIVING" SERIES. (Series ticket covers six performances; if you miss one, bring a friend next time.)

☐ I enclose $10.00 for each subscription.
